1 A I'm answering the question.

2 Q -- is it true that the house has ten bedrooms.

3 A You may not be happy, but I'm answering the question.

4 Don't interrupt me; I don't interrupt you.

5 THE COURT: Rabbi Zaks, please. The questions was,

6 RABBI M-ZAKS: I'm answering the question, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: -- does the house have ten bedrooms.

8 RABBI M-ZAKS: Not my house where I live.

9 THE COURT: No, the 14 Cloverdale Lane house, does it
10 have ten bedrooms?

11 RABBI M-ZAKS: Not the portion that I live in.

12 THE COURT: Well --

13 Q I'm not asking about where you're living.

14 A It's split; there are two parts. There's an addition to 15 the house that was built for people to be here for Shabbos and 16 during other times, who are broken-hearted people. I have three 17 people sleeping here tonight who don't have anywhere to sleep.
18 And this is the reason that this addition was built. A person
19 who knows that and is twisting the facts for some horrible
20 criminal scheme is something that's hard for me to listen to,
21 so, I'm answering the question as it's true. I have where I
22 live; I have an extension that I built, so I should be able to 23 accommodate people who have no home, who are broken-hearted, who 24 are sick.

25 THE COURT: Rabbi Zaks, I'm going to say this just

1 A Oh, at 14 Cloverdale Lane?

2 Q Yes.

3 A When I bought the house, maybe there were four or five, I
4 don't even know. Four bedrooms I think it was. I think so.
5 Four or five. There was one like utility room, so I don't know
6 if you call it a bedroom.

7 Q (Inaudible) when an extension was added to 14 Cloverdale.

8 A Right.

9 Q Was that a yes or no?

10 A Yes, I added an extension.

11 Q Okay. And what was the purpose of adding on that 12 extension?

13 A The purpose of the extension was for a (inaudible) house
14 where many, many people who have no family, nobody, who didn't
15 have any where to go, or were very, very sick, and many, many
16 people came here who tragically could not even cook for Shabbos,
17 so I made a decision at the time. My in-laws were not -- they 18 were bellowing. There was a discussion that they may have to 19 move in here. So, when I built, I built a kessim (ph) house,
20 and I also built an apartment, a small apartment for them.

21 Q Can you just explain what you mean by a kessim house.

22 A It's a house that's built for having people there who have
23 no family, broken-hearted people, people who run through
24 problems or tragedy. A person or family members during COVID
25 who were afraid to sleep along at night and slept here. Many of

1 these rooms were built with the people that helped me with
2 bathrooms in the room, so the person should feel comfortable and
3 not have to go out and share a bathroom. So, therefore, the
4 rooms have nothing to do with the house. It's just a devious
5 way of trying to paint a picture.

6 Q Other than your in-laws who occupy a small section, do any
7 of your family, anyone related to you, live in that addition?

8 A No, they do not.

9 Q Okay.

10 MR. GRAUBARD: Thank you. I have no further
11 questions. I would ask that .... Well, Exhibit 105 is not being 12 offered in evidence, so there's nothing to object to.

13 MR. LEVINE: I have a short redirect, Your Honor?
14 This is Michael Levine.

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 RE-CROSS EXAMINATION

17 BY MR. LEVINE:

18 Q Rabbi Zaks, most of the people that came to stay with you
19 at 14 Cloverdale, were there ever families that came?

20 A Tragically, there were.

21 Q Right. So, there was room for those families?

22 A Somebody lost their mother; a lot was lost --

23 Q So, there was room for those families?

24 A -- so I took in the family into my house.

25 Q Okay. So, there was room for families to stay at 14
